

The no-call list is one of the best things I have seen in a long, long time. I LOVE IT! But it's especially important for disabled and elderly people who struggle to get to the phone only to have a telemarketer at the other end.